Hi Steven,

I spoke with The National Counselling Service and they were happy to accept that you had given verbal consent. They are looking into what happened with you on their waiting list and will get back to me asap.

I also made contact with a relevant counselling service in Waterford who will be able to offer you supports quicker than One in Four due to our long waiting list. They said you are more than welcome to make contact and they will advise you. I would hope that they would be able to provide you with therapy in the coming months. Their contact details are as follows:

<https://www.waterfordsac.ie/>
1800 296 296

Let me know how you get on. And as always, ring me if you have any questions or would like a chat. Take care.

Kind Regards,
Anne-Marie Keady

Thanks Steven,

I will follow up and contact once I have more information.

I heard back yesterday from the NCS who have confirmed you are indeed on their waiting list but in the Waterford area and not the South Dublin / Wicklow area (which you were originally referred to). They have advised that you make contact should you want to follow up yourself on where you are at on the waiting list there. They gave me this number for your area: 1800 234 118.

Let me know how you get on and take care of yourself. Talk soon.

Kind Regards,

Hi Steven,

I have consent from you for contacting the NCS on your behalf. So I can go ahead and make contact with them to see where things are at.

In terms of finding more details in relation to your adoption history, there are several agencies that we could make contact with. I know you have made contact already with two, let me know who exactly and I can follow up with getting consents from you for me to make contact with them. From what I can tell here's the agencies who may be able to help with an FOI:

The Adoption Authority of Ireland - <https://www.aai.gov.ie/en/>
Adoption Rights Alliance - <http://adoption.ie/records/>

Hi Steven,

I have attached consent forms for the two agencies I believe you / we need to contact. You can sign and take a photo of it like you did before or scan back to me. Or just another thought, if you are in Dublin we could arrange to meet in person in the One in Four offices at Arran Quay.

I found the guide by the Adoption Rights Alliance to be really good. You may have read it already but here it is... http://adoption.ie/wp-content/uploads/2019/11/ARA-Information-Guide_Nov-2019.pdf

They also refer to the TUSLA website, here: <https://www.tusla.ie/services/alternative-care/adoption-services/tracing-service/where-are-records-held/>

I plan to contact NCS this afternoon. Please touch base if you've any questions. Hopefully talk soon.

Kind Regards,
Anne-Marie Keady

Hi Steven,

Sorry for all the emails! Just an update on the NCS: I spoke with the Waterford branch yesterday evening and a lady (Annette Comiskey - who I think you mentioned to me before) gave me an update, as follows:

Yes you are on the waiting list and they are happy to provide you with some counselling support. In order to avail of this there are two things you need to do first:

1. Attend your GP (Steven Shortall) who will then refer you for a psychiatric assessment.
2. Attend for psychiatric assessment (with I believe Darren Flynn) at which point he will do up a report for NCS.

I hope this makes sense to you. Please make contact if you have any queries or need any help with this. And similarly touch base about the adoption records also.

Kind Regards,
Anne-Marie Keady

Hi Steven,

Good to talk with you earlier today. Here's some links to various supports / courses we discussed today:

- Springboard: <https://springboardcourses.ie/>
- FAS (now dissolved but there's links to the new services that took over): <http://www.fas.ie/>
- IASIO (the probation service I mentioned - I believe Jimmy Hayes may be your local contact on 056 776 5201: <https://www.iasio.ie/about-us/staff-members/#1506004825158-adef051f-1289>

I'll talk to you in the coming weeks but touch base if there's anything in the meantime.
